Kabuki Performance for Beginners

at the Minamiza Theatre in Kyoto

May 11(Sat) - 19(Sun), 2024

Matinee 11:00am / Evening Show 2:00pm

Kabuki is one of Japan's traditional performing arts that is also widely appreciated by theatre lovers around the world. This is a wonderful opportunity to see kabuki for the first time and a great way to learn about Japan. The program can be enjoyed by anyone: all age groups, experts and novices, Japanese and international visitors etc.

There are different types of plays in kabuki and this program will introduce you to a kabuki dance drama. Just sit back and enjoy the performance on stage accompanied by the beautiful live music in this historic building.

I Lecture on Kabuki

The Minamiza Theatre is situated in Kyoto where kabuki originated, and has a history of over 400 years.

We explain the knowledge needed to enjoy kabuki, one of Japan's traditional performing arts, and highlights of the program humourously to you.

Please also enjoy the unique atmosphere of the Minamiza Theatre, which was registered as one of tangible cultural properties of Japan, as a playhouse.

*English supporting guide is available.

2 Meisaku Hidari Kogatana KYŌNINGYŌ ['Hidari Jingorō and His Courtesan Doll']

This dance tells the story of Hidari Jingorō, a wood sculptor famous for carving the sleeping cat on the great gate of Nikkō Shrine. Falling in love with a beautiful courtesan, he carves a doll that looks exactly like her. The doll suddenly starts moving, as though it were alive, and Jingorō enjoys his time with the sculpture.
